If you have enrolled in courses that are dependent on you meeting the prerequisites before the start date of the course, these will be rechecked. If you do not pass the prerequisite course(s), the University will withdraw your enrolment in the dependant course(s).

Check out Stream, Massey University's online learning environment, for information about each course you will be studying. For most courses you will find further information about your programme of study and the specific course requirements. Some or all of your study materials may also be available online. Normally you will be able to access these resources on, or a few days before, the first day of the semester. Use your student ID number and password to log into Stream.

If you are new to Stream or are returning after a break, we encourage you to visit our Guide to Stream webpages.

For most students information about changing your qualification is available at changing your study.
